CELEBRATING ONE YEAR IN LUMMI!

Summer Snapshots

A Lummi Blackhawk Singer raises her hands in a dance of thanks during a celebration dinner hosted by the Tribe in appreciation of Indian Health Services and MTW and its summer mission teams at the tribal Stommish Grounds. The Tribe provided a delicious meal including traditional salmon and fry bread, while the Blackhawk Singers and Dancers shared traditional songs and dance.

Todd was honored to join in the Owl Dance, and many of us were treated to a trip in a Lummi travel canoe. The evening ended with a glorious sunset and our hearts raised in praise to the Creator.

Volunteers from Surrey, B.C. spent days moving dirt to form a bicycle track at Lummi Youth Wellness Center (LYWC) that will make a lasting impact on the Lummi community. (Todd has worked with friends at LYWC to repair old, broken-down bicycles that were donated to the Tribe by the Bellingham Police Department after the stolen bikes were never claimed.)

Prayer Ministry

The single most important part of our mission is prayer. In the words of Jesus, “apart from me you can do nothing.” - John 15:5

As we prioritize prayer in our days, Todd sets aside time to visit the “prayer rock” where he sits before the throne of God, interceding on behalf of the Lummi people. We also thank the Lord for the team of people who join us in these prayers, and we pray for you, as well. Thank you for persisting in prayer with us!

“If you abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask whatever you wish, and it will be done for you.” John 15:7

Answered Prayer

As we celebrate the first anniversary of our arrival in Lummi, we celebrate the wonderful way God has answered our prayers for opportunities to build relationships with families on the reservation. A typical week now includes a couple of afternoons at the Lummi Youth Wellness Center and one or two afternoons at the McKenzie Community Resident Outreach Center playing soccer and 9-Square-in-the-Air with kids after school. It is a thrill to see the joy in kids’ faces when they see us come to play!

We thank God for the precious friendships He has given us among these amazing people! And we thank you for your continued prayers, support and encouragement!

Praise the Lord!
